The Corporation seeks to educate the whole person with balanced emphasis placed on the development of mind, spirit, and body, harmonizing knowledge, skills, and attitudes with faith in, and commitment to, Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior, believing Him to be the only perfect, whole person who has lived.

The Corporation is committed to the historic Christian faith of the eternal Godhead: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit who, through the new birth and indwelling of us as believers by His Spirit, is Lord of our lives now and forever. The Corporation is committed to assist students in their quest for knowledge of their personal relationship to God, to mankind, and to the universe in which we live. Dedicated to the realization of trust as it is totally embodied in Christ and the achievement of one's potential life capacity, the Corporation seeks to graduate an integrated person: a person spiritually alive, intellectually alert, physically disciplined in His work on earth, and living at all times in expectancy of the Second Coming of Christ.

To accomplish this purpose, the corporation seeks to synthesize, by means of interdisciplinary cross-pollination, the best traditions in liberal arts, professional, and graduate education with a Charismatic concern of the Holy Spirit himself to enable students to go into every man's world with God's healing power to help meet the totality of human need.

4.2 The Corporation is formed to carry out any other charitable, religious, educational and scientific purposes, as described under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (referred to herein as the "Code"; all references to a specific Section of the Code also refer to a corresponding provision of any amendment to the Code).

4.3 In furtherance of Section 4.1 and 4.2, the Corporation is formed to exercise any, all and every power for which a not-for-profit corporation organized under the applicable provisions of the Act may be authorized to exercise.

4.4 The Corporation shall have all powers permitted by law that are necessary and incidental to the fulfillment of its purposes.

4.5 All purposes and powers of this Corporation as stated in this Certificate of Incorporation shall be limited exclusively to those purposes and powers as comply with Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

ARTICLE V

5.1 The Corporation is not organized for, nor does it afford, pecuniary gain, incidentally or otherwise, to its members as such, nor shall it have any power to issue certificates of stock or declare dividends. No part of the Corporation's net earnings shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, directors, trustees, officers or other private persons; except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable expenses, including reasonable compensation for services rendered, and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the objects and purposes set forth in Article IV hereof.

5.2 Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Certificate of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from federal income taxation under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Code, or (b) an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2), Section 2066(a) and Section 2522(a) of the Code.

5.3 Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Trustees shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Corporation, distribute all of the assets of the Corporation exclusively for the purposes of the Corporation in such manner as the Board of Trustees shall determine, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Code as the Board of Trustees shall determine. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the district court of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as the court shall determine. ARTICLE IX

Except as many otherwise be provided in this Certificate of Incorporation or in the Bylaws of the Corporation, as the same may be amended from time to time, the Board of Trustees shall have all powers and authority which may be granted to a board of directors of a Corporation under the Act.
